Nov. 8—Mrs. Sneed and Al G. Boyce leave Fort Worth. Nov. 16—They reach Chicago. Nov. 16—They leave for Winnipeg, Canada. Dec. 26—Both Boyce and Mrs. Sneed held in Winnipeg. Sneed shoots and kills Al G. Boyce at Amarillo.

Amarillo, Tex., Sept. 14.—That another person aside from J. Beal Sneed is connected with the killing of Al G. Boyce Jr. here Saturday developed at the special session of the grand jury today which is investigating the death of Boyce. The identity of the person, who disappeared, no description being obtained, furnished the principal topic in the discussion of the second killing in connection with the Sneed case as the result of the eloquent last fall of Mrs. J. B. Sneed with Boyce.

It is considered almost certain that Sneed will be taken to Fort Worth to stand trial on the charge of killing Capt. Al G. Boyce, father of the man killed Saturday. This trial is set for November.

The grand jury in special session today failed to complete its investigation after examining thirty witnesses. While the jury was in session the funeral of Boyce took place. The procession passed within a block of the jail in which Sneed was confined.

Counsel for Sneed will consist of local attorneys and W. B. Scott and W. P. McLean Jr. of Fort Worth, so far as was announced today.

It was announced that W. A. Hanger of Fort Worth will be retained as one of the assistants for the state in the prosecution of Sneed, being prominently identified with the prosecution in the case in which Sneed is charged with the killing of A. G. Boyce Sr. in Fort Worth this year and for which he is to stand retrial early in November at that place.

It is not believed that any court action aside from the indictment of Sneed can take place during the present term of court, as it terminates by operation of law on October 10.

Roosevelt at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Sept. 16.—"Mr. Wilson proposes to erect as the national symbol the straightjacket," said Col. Roosevelt today. He declared that the democratic candidate's view of the government was one "which every great, crooked financier, every great, crooked boss," wishes to see the government take. He found it difficult, he said, to express himself as he wished on Gov. Wilson's views and he entirely courteous.

"Mr. Wilson must have paid what he did because of his inexperience," he said.

Col. Roosevelt spent seven hours in Los Angeles, arriving in mid-afternoon.

For Highway Improvement.

Gonzales, Sept. 16.—At a meeting here recently the Gonzales Association for Highway Improvement was formed. J. T. Parr was elected president and A. H. Fitzgerald secretary.

MURDERER ELECTROCUTED

BERTRAM G. SPENCER DIES IN CHAIR AT BOSTON.

While Robbing Residence at Springfield He Killed Miss Martha B. Blackstone, School Teacher.

Boston, Sept. 16.—Bertram G. Spencer, who as a masked burglar shot and killed Miss Martha B. Blackstone at Springfield, on March 21, 1910, paid the penalty of his crime with death by electrocution at the Charleston state prison at 12:15 this morning.

The crime for which Spencer was convicted, the murder of a young woman school teacher, was the culmination of a series of bold petty burglaries which for two years had baffled the police and terrorized the people of Springfield. Spencer confessed that the fascination of reading newspaper accounts of his exploits was the motive for the burglaries.

The night of March 21, 1910, Spencer broke into the home of Mrs. Sarah J. Dow. Miss Blackstone was visiting at the home and with Mrs. Dow and her two daughters, was putting together a picture puzzle. Suddenly a masked man with a leveled revolver walked into the room and demanded money. The women screamed and started to run. The man ordered them to stop and as the women did not heed the warning he fired. One shot killed Miss Blackstone instantly, and another entered Miss Harriet Dow's head, causing a fracture of the skull from which, however, she recovered. The burglar fled, leaving no clue behind him.

Three months later after rewards had been offered by the governor and others, private detectives produced a lock of hair which had been found near the scene of one of the many robberies. It contained pictures of Spencer's mother and sister and bore his initials. Spencer was known only as an industrious clerk in a meat store. He was 25 years of age and had a young wife and baby. Spencer was arrested and he confessed, not only to the many robberies, but to the shooting of Miss Blackstone. In his home was found a collection of miscellaneous articles he had stolen.

DETECTIVES INVESTIGATE

HINTED THEY DESTROYED EVIDENCE IN ROSENTHAL CASE.

District Attorney Desires to Know How Close to the Gunmen Were Obtained.

New York, Sept. 16.—A secret "John Doe" investigation of circumstances surrounding the arrest Saturday night of the "Gyp and the Blood" and "Lacy Lucie" two of the four gunmen who are alleged to have slain Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was begun today before Justice Goff. The purpose of the investigation, according to District Attorney Moss, is to determine whether the police suppressed or destroyed any evidence, particularly letters, implicating the two men in the murder, and when and how the clues to their whereabouts were obtained. Pleading to the murder indictments against the defendants was put over until Wednesday.

Whitman at Hot Springs.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 16.—District Attorney Whitman of New York, with Mrs. Whitman, accompanied by Assistant District Attorney Rubin, arrived here today. She sustained compound fractures of both legs and internal injuries.

Miss Wood has been suffering from a nervous disorder and arrived here today from Maine, where she has been spending the summer with the family of Rear Admiral Sigbee.

WILSON REPLIES TO BEVERIDGE

CHARGE THAT HE IS TO BE BOSS-CONTROLLED IS REGARDED AS A JOKE.

SPEAKS FROM HIS CAR

Nominee Makes a Dozen Speeches in Ohio and Indiana, Twisting Up Train Schedule.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Through Ohio and Indiana Governor Woodrow Wilson did some impromptu campaigning today that was as vigorous as it was unexpected.

No previous arrangement had been made for speeches and the train schedule was twisted by delays early in the day but crowds gathered along the route and Governor Wilson made nearly a dozen speeches from his car.

He replied to former Senator Beveridge of Indiana, who charged in a recent speech that Governor Wilson, if elected, would be boss-controlled. When the democratic candidate reached Logansport, he hit at Mr. Beveridge to a large crowd.

"I understand that in a speech made last Saturday night," said Governor Wilson, "a very much esteemed friend of mine, namely, Senator Beveridge, said that he entertained a very serious fear about me, namely that if I were elected president, I would be controlled by the bosses. I never suspected before that Senator Beveridge was a humorist, because if he didn't know that was a joke, he ought to have known it. When did he ever hear that I had changed all my political habits?"

"The way you canteled whether a man is going to be controlled by the bosses is to judge whether he is in reach of a boss. Do you know what a boss is? A boss is a political agent of certain special interests, who see to it that people they can control are put into office and that laws they don't want are kept off the statute books, and the men who do that are the men who are interested in the great monopolies of this country."

"I am sorry to observe that whereas the republican party has practically fostered the trusts and the democratic party proposes to prevent monopoly in this country, the third party represented by Senator Beveridge proposes to take the monopoly into partnership with the government by accepting it as an inevitable necessity, and bringing it under the regulation of law; that is to say, making it a legalized institution of the country. And when the men who have created monopolies are accepted partners of the government, do you suppose they are going to disperse with the men who are their necessary agents, namely, the bosses, who determine who is to occupy office, and what the legislation campaign is to be?"

Given Cordial Reception. The governor was well received throughout the day. He shook hands with people who flocked to the rear platform and waved greetings to those not so near. The train reached Chicago only seven minutes late, and left at 6:05 for Sioux City, Iowa, and Sioux Falls, S. D., where speeches are scheduled for tomorrow.

Arctic Explorer Discusses His Discovery With Scientists.

New York, Sept. 16.—Steffansson, the Arctic explorer, arrived in New York today and before a small group of scientists at the American Museum of Natural History related the story of his discovery of a strange tribe in the frozen north.

"Do you believe the blonde Eskimos whom you found were a lost tribe of Norsemen?" Mr. Steffansson was asked.

"No, I never put it that way," said the explorer. "I should say they were of mixed Eskimo and New Foundland stock."

Mandot Would Meet Wolgast.

New Orleans, Sept. 16.—Joe Mandot, recent conqueror of Joe Rivera, has thrown down the gauntlet to Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion. Mandot today signed articles with Promoter Dominick Torchio of New Orleans, to meet any lightweight in the world at 123 pounds ringside, including Wolgast. Mandot says he is willing to meet Wolgast in either 19 or 20 rounds. If Wolgast declines the challenge, Mandot's manager, Harry Coleman, announced that Mandot will meet Rivera, Ritchie, Brown or Welsh if they make that weight, and will then claim the championship by default.

OPERATORS REJECT PLAN

WEST VIRGINIA COAL STRIKE IS NOT YET SETTLED.

Gov. Glasscock's Efforts to Adjust the Trouble by Arbitration Fail. To Try Again.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 16.—Hopes of settling the strike in the Kanawha coal fields of West Virginia diminished today when the operators refused to accept Gov. Glasscock's plan of arbitration, jointly offered the operators and miners. The plan was agreeable to the miners.

The executive's plan was believed to be a solution of the troubles. The operators, however, refused to accept it, on the ground that all men, both union and nonunion, would not abide by the decision.

Gov. Glasscock, disappointed at the failure of his efforts to bring about a solution, has issued a call which is expected to bring to Charleston next Saturday representatives of business organizations throughout West Virginia, coal operators and miners, in mass meeting to discuss further plans for a settlement of the strike.

The operators contend that the majority of the miners are nonunion, and that to accept the governor's proposition would in effect mean that the mines would be operated under the authority of the United Mine Workers of America and the recognition of the union, something they propose never to do.

REGULATIONS ARE DRASTIC

NEW NEWSPAPER LAW BECOMES EFFECTIVE OCT. 1.

Sworn Statement Must Be Filed Twice a Year With the Postmaster General.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Postmaster General Hitchcock today issued instructions for carrying into effect of the new newspaper and periodical law, first returns under which must be made by October 1. The law requires that publishers shall file on the first days of April and October of each year, both with the postmaster general and with the local postmaster, under penalty of denial of the use of the mails, a sworn statement of the names and addresses of the owners, publishers, editor, managing editor and business manager of their newspapers and periodicals. Religious, fraternal, temperance and scientific publications are excepted.

For a corporation the names of the holders of more than one per cent of the stocks, bonds or other securities must be given, and in the case of daily newspapers, a statement of the average paid circulation for the preceding six months is required. All editorial or other reading matter appearing in a newspaper or magazine for the publication of which pay is accepted or promised, must be marked "advertisement" under penalty of a fine of not less than $50 or more than $500.

Although this law was not favored by the postmaster general, said Postmaster General Hitchcock today, "it will be administered faithfully and impartially. In framing the act, congress doubtless had in mind the leading daily newspapers, but it will affect also nearly 18,000 weekly. Many of these publications are having a hard struggle for existence and will find the making of returns a considerable burden."

"In my judgment, and I so expressed it to congress, the provision will be harmful, as it will require the continuous use of valuable space in the publications and at the same time be resented as a censorship of the press. One of the greatest difficulties now encountered in the enforcement of the law relating to the second class mail privilege is that the postoffice department is compelled by law to make inquiries into so many aspects of the private business of publishers. This gives rise to the complaint, well founded in my opinion, that the government interferes needlessly with the privileges of the press. My judgment is that it should be the constant aim, not only of the congress but of the postoffice department to lessen the necessity for supervision of the public press in the enactment and administration of postal laws."

On July 1, 1912, there were 28,144 newspapers and periodicals enjoying second-class privileges. There were 2415 dailies, 12,217 weeklies, 5277 monthlies, 1351 quarterlies and 1785 having other periods of issue. Of these all except 1500 exempted publication will be affected by the new law.

Money, a member of the government's monetary commission, fell in the dark last night from the porch of his home at Fair Haven, between here and Gulfport, and fractured his right hip. MEXICANS RIOT AT CELEBRATION

BYSTANDER KILLED AND THREE POLICEMEN ARE WOUNDED AT PHOENIX, ARIZ.

ASSAILANTS MAKE ESCAPE

Company of National Guardsmen Assail Posse of Citizens in Hunt for the Fugitives.

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 16.—Scott Price, a bystander, was killed, Chief of Police Moore and Policeman Robert Williams mortally wounded and another policeman seriously hurt today by Mexican rioters at a Mexican celebration. The Mexicans escaped with posers of national guardsmen and citizens in pursuit.

Unnaturalized Mexicans and their untrained countrymen had engaged in a little over the management of the celebration which was held on City Hall plaza.

Policemen Williams and J. Valenzuela arrested two of the brawlers and had taken them as far as the prison entrance, when the men drew knives and plunged them into the breasts of the officers. Williams was mortally wounded. The other policeman, although seriously hurt, is expected to recover.

Chief of Police Moore, attracted by the noise, came up just as the two policemen had fallen. He was attacked by the two Mexicans, who plunged their dirks into his body again and again. Although mortally wounded, Moore opened fire and one of the bullets pierced the heart of Scott Price, a young American who was in the throng that had assembled at the plaza to witness the celebration.

The chief of police staggered after the fleeing assassins but another Mexican ran up behind him and drove a knife between his shoulderblades. Moore fell mortally wounded.

The city council immediately assembled and scores of citizens were sworn in as deputies to pursue the fugitives. Saloons were ordered closed and all festivities suspended. Members of the Phoenix national guard, well mounted, joined in the hunt. At a late hour the Mexicans were still at large.

Soldier Kills Policeman.

Bisbee, Ariz., Sept. 16.—Policeman Aureliane Walle was shot fatally last night by Private Brown of Troop C, Fourth cavalry, stationed at Naco, Ariz. During a dance in celebration of Mexican independence day in Naco, Sonora, it was reported the policeman tried to eject several American soldiers who attended the dance. Brown is held in the cartel at Naco.

Quarantine in Lumber Imports.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The department of agriculture today proclaimed a quarantine against the importation of white pine, western white pine, sugar pine and stone or emilian pine from Great Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Russia, Germany, Austria, Switzerland and Italy. The quarantine, effective today, is designed to prevent enormous damage to coniferous trees in the event of the introduction of the disease known as white pine blister rust. The proclamation came after the first of three hearings preliminary to the enforcement of the new federal plant quarantine law.

Sheriff Watches Bouts.

New York, Sept. 16.—Several bouts were fought at Madison Square Garden tonight and witnessed by Sheriff Harburger, who was warned recently by Gov. Dix not to permit any actual prize fights in this city. The sheriff, after the contests, declared the exhibitions were in the true style of boxing and the referee showed humane feeling when he stopped the bout between Kid Williams of Baltimore and Billy Fitzsimmons of Yonkers, in the eighth round. The Yonkers man had been completely outfought.

The verdict did not place the blame for the accident.

BAND MEN TOGETHER AGAIN.

Re-Organize At Athens and Ready To Start Practice.

Athens, Sept. 16.—The Athens Military band has been re-organized and Prof. Antonio Cruz instructs them two nights each week. The band was first organized in 1905 and continued to be an active organization until 1910, when it disbanded. Last Friday night the band met and re-organized, with 22 experienced musicians and nine new applicants present. Among the members of the band are several men who have had experience as teachers and leaders of bands. The Athens band was for many years one of the best amateur bands in the state and it is thought that there are enough of the old members in the new organization to afford a nucleus for a really good band.

STIMPSON FOR GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF WAR MAY HEAD NEW YORK TICKET.

Taft Favors Him, But Probably Will Not Take Aggressive Part in Making a Selection.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 16.—President Taft will discuss the political situation in New York state and the ticket the republican convention is to name there, at a conference of several hours in New York City, September 21.

The president is not expected to determine upon a man to head the republican ticket in New York. There have been reports in Beverly that the favored Secretary of War Henry L. Stimpson. The president, it is known would be pleased to see the naming of his secretary of war at the head of the New York ticket, but in line with his policy of keeping out of state politics, it was considered doubtful tonight if he would take an aggressive part in the selection of a gubernatorial candidate. It is believed, however, he will let the leaders know just what he thinks of the availability of any man proposed.

Blame Not Placed.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—At the inquest today into the death of ten naval apprentices and one petty officer of the United States naval training station at North Chicago, Ill., who were drowned yesterday when a cutter overturned in a squall on Lake Michigan, the jury, composed of naval officers, returned a verdict that the victims "came to their death while on duty as a result of the gale and the rough sea." REVOLT OVER, SAYS MADERO

IN MESSAGE TO CONGRESS, HE GIVES ASSURANCE PEACE WILL BE RESTORED.

ONE REFERENCE TO U. S.

Exaggerated Demands Given as Reason for Not Settling American Claims for Indemnity.

Mexico City, Sept. 16.—But one reference to the relations between the United States and Mexico was made by President Madero in his message tonight to congress, and that was in connection with the American claims for indemnity growing out of the battle of Juarez in 1911. The reason for their remaining unsettled, he informed congress, lay in the exaggerated demands.

Regarding the $20,000,000 war loan made in June, he said that $18,000,000 of the loan had already been expended. The president declared that the revolution was practically ended, and ascribed to a certain few whose ambitions were unsatisfied in the revolution against Diaz, and to a certain part of the press which he alleged had given "false and exaggerated news," the spread of the belief that the government was weak.

In his discussion of the claims of Americans for indemnity, President Madero said that the government, in an effort to settle the claims, had instructed two consuls to investigate. Eleven claimants, he added, appeared at Douglas and six at El Paso, seeking indemnity for wounds they had received at Juarez, "due in some cases to their negligence, and in others to an impertinent curiosity to witness a battle." The indemnities granted, he said, were based on judgments rendered in similar instances in American courts.

Peace to Be Restored.

The remainder of the message contained assurances that peace would be speedily restored, and dealt with plans for improving the army and with interior financial conditions. Though he admitted that small bands of rebels were operating in the state of Sonora, and that bands occupied the attention of the army in the states of Morelos, Guerrero and Mexico, and that slight disturbances existed in a few other states, he said that he regarded the revolution as practically ended. He alleged that the belief that the government was weak had been spread by a certain few whose ambitions had been unsatisfied in the previous revolution, and that "strength to the new movement had been given by certain portions of the press which has published false and exaggerated views, sowing panic in the homes of honorable citizens."

Referring to the $20,000,000 (approximately) war loan contracted last June, the president said that $18,000,000 of the amount had already been expended in maintaining the campaign against the rebels. He notified congress that the government would have to be authorized to make another loan. He called attention to the fact that the request some time ago for authority to make a loan for the interior at 5 per cent for paying indemnities and railway subsidies had not yet been granted. He said that the state finance department had passed upon 2616 claims which had not yet been paid.

The celebration of the anniversary of Mexican independence was concluded today with a big military parade and without any disorders. The hoisting of the name of President Madero last Friday and Saturday had led to the belief that outbreaks would probably mar the ceremonies, but none occurred.

FEDERALS RETAKE EL TIGRE.

Rebels Driven From Camp Without Shot Being Fired.

Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 16.—El Tigre, one of the richest mining camps in Northern Mexico, was taken by federals at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon after having been in the hands of the rebels of Inez Salazar for two days.

Telephonic communication with the camp was restored just as the federal troops were moving in, and Superintendent L. R. Budrow telephoned that the rebels still were in sight, going over the hills. Not a shot was fired in the recapture of the towns. A hundred federals, chiefly Yaqui Indians, marched into the town and the small band of rebels that had remained to await the reply to the demand for $100,000 ransom took to the hills.

Several hundred additional federals are encamped in the vicinity of the town. The rebels are reported to have taken with them $20,000 worth of gold and silver bullion.

News of the relief of El Tigre was received here with much rejoicing. There had been disquieting rumors all day of mistreatment of Americans by rebels.

MAY HAVE REBEL LEADER.

Prisoner at Presidio, Tex., Suspected of Being Orozco Jr.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 16.—Six prisoners are held by United States troops at Presidio, opposite Ojinaga, Mex., where General Aubert arrived today with 1500 federal troops.

Among the prisoners are all of the advisers and principal leaders of Gen. Pascual Orozco Jr., the rebel commander-in-chief. It is suspected the person giving his name as Col. Pablo G. Orozco, a distant relative of the rebel leader, is the rebel leader himself.

Among the prisoners positively identified, according to reports to General Steever, are Col. Pascual Orozco Sr., father of the rebel general; Col. Jose Cordova, General Orozco's private secretary and chief adviser, and Col. Cristobal Caballero, an adviser to the rebel chief.

Extradition proceedings against Pascual Orozco Sr. have been filed, according to notification of secret service agents here. The elder Orozco also is wanted at El Paso on a charge of conspiracy to ship munitions of war into Mexico. So far no specific charges have been filed against the other prisoners held at Presidio. Colonel Orozco will be brought here for trial.

Stop Pictures of Funeral.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Jack Johnson, negro heavyweight champion pugilist, today obtained an injunction restraining the management of a negro theater from exhibiting motion pictures of the funeral procession of Etta Duryea Johnson, the champion's wife, who committed suicide.

"The exhibition is an injustice to me and may cause the impression that I am profiting financially from the pictures," said Johnson.

Chief of Police Mcweeney issued an order forbidding exhibition of the pictures.

British Steamer Ashore.

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 16.—The British steamer Coniston, bound from Gibraltar for Port St. Joe, Fla., for a cargo of lumber, is ashore in the Passes about 30 miles east of Pensacola. The tug Simpson is alongside the steamer, but has been unable to move her. The vessel which was driven ashore in the gulf storm several days ago has buried her nose eight or ten feet in the sand and will have to be dredged out.

Catholics in Session.

Toledo, Sept. 16.—Four hundred delegates to the Roman Catholic Central Verein, in session here today, decided to erect, probably in Chicago, a study house where young men and priests would be trained to spread Catholic ideas on social and economic questions. It also was decided to make more general the observance of St. Boniface day, June 5, so that it might equal the celebration by the Irish of St. Patrick's day.

Forbid Public Gatherings.

Corpus Christi, Tex., Sept. 16.—For the first time since the yellow fever epidemic in 1884, there were no religious services in Corpus Christi on Sunday, in accordance with the mandate of the state board of health forbidding all public gatherings until the present diphtheria cases are under control. For the twenty-four hours ending at noon today no new cases had developed.

EGGS IN COLD STORAGE.

Report of The Associated Warehousemen of The United States.

The report of the Associated Warehousemen of the United States, recently made, includes facts and figures concerning the operations of thirty-nine large warehouses in the organization. There are one hundred smaller warehouses scattered throughout the states, of which no record is kept.

According to the report of the associated warehouses, there were in storage on September 3 of last year 3,002,000 cases of eggs. On the same day this year there were 3,198,000, or 196,000 more crates than last year. There are thirty dozen in a crate, so that the men who control the egg market have 5,880,000 dozens more stored away this year than they had in 1911. This, of course, takes into account only the big warehouses. The total of all storage plans in the country reaches a far higher figure.

New Egg Laws.

In Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska laws are now being enforced requiring eggs to be candied before going into storage. In former years dealers counted on four dozens to the crate deteriorating while in storage. Now that all are good before being put away, the losses will be approximately 1 1/2 dozens to the crate, giving the dealers the advantage of an additional 2 1/2 dozens when the eggs are placed on the market.

Last September storage eggs were quoted in New York at 22 cents a dozen. This year they are 28 cents. The average price, including storage, insurance, loss and interest, up to January 1, 1913, would not bring their cost over 23 cents.

The object in holding the eggs in storage is to command a high price when the weather is cool. In hot weather cold storage eggs "sweat" when taken from the vaults and rapidly deteriorate. Dealers do not want to take chances on getting them out too soon, but in some instances they are put on the market in warm weather after being dried by an electric fan.

CHAIRMAN TO CALL PRIMARY

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES ON QUESTION COMING FROM BELL COUNTY.

NO EXPENSES PROVIDED

Election Officers to Serve Without Pay and Free Will Offering to Buy Supplies.

Austin, Sept. 16.—Attorney General James D. Walthall has advised J. B. Talley, county chairman of Bell county and chairman of the Twenty-seventh senatorial district, that the district chairman has authority to call the democratic executive committee to fix a date for a special primary election, should there be a vacancy in the senatorship which must be filled. The chairman must name the place and date of meeting.

It is in the Twenty-seventh district that Earl B. Mayfield, state senator and nominee for railroad commissioner, is expected to resign from the state senate, since he can not be state senator and railroad commissioner, too. The counties of Bell, Bosque, Coryell and Hamilton are in his senatorial district.

Several questions were asked about the primary. Mr. Walthall held that under the Terrell election law the committee is empowered to fix the time within which the candidates must file their names for places upon the official ballot, and notice thereof should be published in the press. The committee, he says, may order the primary election any time after the resignation is accepted.

There is no provision in the law for payment of the expenses of the primary election, and candidates can not be asked to bear it, as the law says candidates for district offices may be assessed $1 for each county. Mr. Walthall says the custom is for the election officers to serve free, and that money for supplies can be procured by free will offerings. He holds further that the general primary election laws govern the primary for the district.

BOURNE WRITES COLQUITT.

Data on Needed Improvements of Texas Post Roads Requested.

Austin, Sept. 16.—United States Senator Jonathan Bournie Jr. of the senate committee on postoffices and also chairman of the committee to look into the advisability of granting federal aid to states for post roads has written Governor Colquitt extensively, requesting that the governor fill out or have filled out a map showing not exceeding 2 per cent of road mileage of the state which should be improved with the aid of federal appropriations. On the other map, the governor is asked to outline roads where national appropriations should be expended, assuming that the national government would meet the entire cost of maintenance on such roads but not any part of the cost of construction.

The letter states specifically that an answer and the giving of the desired data will not commit the state to the policy of receiving the federal aid unless the state shall deem it advisable. But the committee considering the matter is desirous of knowing the extent and distribution of roads deemed suitable for the national aid. All information presented is regarded as confidential.

AGAINST THE COMPTROLLER.

Opinion is Given in Case of Sheriff Rochelle of Bowie.

Austin, Sept. 16.—In an opinion to the comptroller, Assistant Attorney General C. E. Mead has advised that under the decision of the supreme court in the Rochelle case, the comptroller has not the right to question any account presented by a sheriff if approved by the district judge and recorded by the district clerk, even though that account contain erroneous charges against the state; even though the addition or multiplication be erroneous; even though there be mistakes militating against the state in every way. Mr. Mead says that the comptroller must issue the warrants just the same. He also gave Sheriff Rochelle of Bowie county $1334, which he says the Bowie county sheriff admitted was not legally due him.

Hookworm in Angelina County.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 16.—First specimens received by the state health department from Angelina county indicate a hookworm infection there ranging from 40 to 50 per cent. The state treatment through Dr. Hubert Ferrell will begin at Huntington today.

FORMERLY MEMBER OF LEGISLATURE

MAN WHO WAS A POLITICAL POWER IN HOUSTON WRITES OF PLANT JUICE.

There is no better known man in Houston than Marshall Tankersley, former practitioner of law and at one time a great political power in this county. He was formerly a member of the legislature and he and his parents were among the pioneers of this city. Mr. Tankersley writes:

My Dear Sir: I have suffered with asthma and catarrh of the stomach for ten years. I also had a bad cough which troubled me in bad weather, and has been getting worse every year. A few days ago, when I was feeling unusually depressed, a friend advised me to try Plant Juice and I decided to follow his advice. I have finished the bottle and am ready to begin on another. It has acted on my liver and purified my blood in fine shape. My cough is better and I have been greatly benefited in every way, and I am going to continue the treatment.

Yours truly,

MARSHALL TANKERSLEY

1518 McKinney Avenue.

Many Criminal Cases on Appeal.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 16.—The court of criminal appeals is to begin work with more than 350 cases on appeal to be submitted and considered, is the announcement made today by Assistant Attorney General C. E. Lane. Thirty appeals from Dallas county were received this morning. Fifty cases besides motions for rehearing were carried over. It is now believed that with the other appealed cases there will not be less than 350 cases before the court in the beginning. In addition to the appeals which will come in all through the year.

Counties Show Increase.

Austin, Sept. 16.—The comptroller has received reports from sixty-six counties which show an increase in valuation of more than three and a half million dollars. The increase for this year is expected to be between fifteen and twenty million dollars over last year.

AS TOM PADGITT SEES IT

BELIEVES IT WOULD BE WELL TO INVESTIGATE SOMERS.

If It Is a Good System It Ought to Be Adopted—Heard Mr. Pastoriza.

"I do not believe that a city of the size and progressiveness of Houston would have adopted the Somers system of land taxation without having first thoroughly investigated the workings of the system," said Tom Padgitt of Tom Padgitt & Co., wholesale leather and saddlery company, yesterday, in discussing the feasibility of the much talked of system.

Mr. Padgitt stated that while he heard J. J. Pastoriza of Houston in the recent speech Mr. Pastoriza made in Waco on the system, and also has read everything which he has seen in the newspapers concerning the system, he did not feel justified in making any statement as to the advisability of Waco adopting the system.

"What I do believe, however," said Mr. Padgitt, "is that the city commission of Waco should investigate the Somers system, with a view to determining the benefits that might be derived from the installation of the system. I don't believe in going it blind, but as you know Beaumont recently has adopted the system, and Beaumont is a live city about the size of Waco, and so I think it is up to the Waco administration to look into the matter. We want anything that will help, whether it be the Somers or any other system."

MANY IMPORTANT CASES

SUPREME COURT OF U. S. RECON-VENES IN OCTOBER.

Twenty-One Suits of Unusual Consequence Are Set for the Opening Day.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The supreme court will begin its fall term with the consideration of a number of important cases.

Twenty-one cases of unusual consequence have been set for hearing October 24, the opening day. To this list probably will be added the Kansas election case, which involves the right of Roosevelt electors to remain on the Republican ticket in Kansas.
The second argument of the cotton corner case and the intermountain rate cases are both assigned for argument early in the term.

The bath tub trust suit will call for a determination of the relation of the Sherman anti-trust law to the patent statutes.

The principal question is whether the owner of a patent on a tool used in the manufacture of a patented article, such as a bath tub, may, by a process of licensing all manufacturers to use the patented tool, fix the price and terms under which the bath tub may be sold wholesale and retail regardless of the Sherman law.

The Louisville & Nashville rate case, indirectly the basis for one of the charges against Judge Archibald of the commerce court, involves the power of the commerce court to weigh evidence presented to them.

Litigation involving the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce commission over railroads in stock yards and power of the commission to compel roads to grant switching facilities to interurban electric railways, also will be taken up promptly. The question of the application of the Interstate Commerce laws, particularly the Carmack amendment to attempts of railroads to limit their liability for loss of freight and the enforcement of state laws declaring void bills of lading limiting liability, will be thrashed out in similar cases.

ARREST DALLAS DRUGGIST.

Dr. J. B. Martin Charged With Killing John W. Wood.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 16.—A complaint charging that Dr. J. B. Martin, a druggist here, killed John W. Wood with his fist was filed yesterday. Mrs.
Wood, the widow, said today that on September 6 her husband had trouble in Martin's drug store and that Martin put him out of the place. Wood died Sunday morning of concussion of the brain. Mrs. Wood said she was unwilling to prosecute the druggist because she did not believe he was responsible for her husband's death.

Cameron Dam Cases Dismissed.

Eau Clair, Wis., Sept. 16.—The charges against Hattie, Clarence, Leslie and Elmyris Dietz, wife and children of the defender of Cameron dam,
were dismissed today in circuit court
on motion of District Attorney Williams of Sawyer county. The defendants were charged with assault with intent to kill John Rogich in July, 1906. The district attorney gave his reason for dismissal of the cases that John Rogich is now in Australia.
John Dietz was given a life sentence.

KATE FRIEND, Editor

MISS KATHERINE SPENCER IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Invitations have been extended by Miss Katherine Spencer for a luncheon in her home today. This brings the first formal small affair for the new opening season. Only girl friends are included among the guests.

OUT OF TOWN GUESTS COME FOR RUHMANN-GRIBBLE

This afternoon will note the arrival from Austin of Miss Anna Grib-ble, who comes for the marriage of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Gribble, on Thursday. She will be a guest in the Robert Gribble home. There will also be present the parents of the groom,
Mr. and Mrs. Ruhmann, from Lott,
also the groom's sister, Mrs. Spaw, from Fort Stockton.

SECOND PRESBYTERIANS TO HAVE A NEW MANSE

It is now decided that the new manse for the Second Presbyterian church will be built on the church grounds. The church will be shifted in position to make space for the new building. This promises to be quite attractive in design and erected in time to be occupied by Reverend and Mrs. Grier with the first of the new year.

HOME WEDDING ON EAST SIDE WEDNESDAY EVENING

Pleasant anticipation is held by the friends who have received invitations into the W. C. Pyffe home, for Wednesday evening. At this time
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pyffe will give in marriage their daughter, Miss Farnah Pyffe, to Walter Hall of this city.
The details of ceremony will be simple and followed by an immediate departure for a few days. Several out-of town guests are expected to arrive on the wedding day.

MRS. SAM McLENDON MOVES INTO HER NEW HOME

Monday found the first installment of furniture in the handsome new home of Mrs. Sam McLendon, on West Austin. This is one of the most attractive residences in this city, one of the purest types of the old colonial to be found anywhere. It has occupied many months to build, and now Mrs. McLendon is enjoying her first day in it. When in order, friends will take unbounded interest in inspecting an interior where such admiration
has been paid an exterior.

ART LEAGUE WILL HAVE TO ELECT NEW PRESIDENT

The unexpected departure from the city of Mrs. Roy Coleman, the incoming president of the Art League, will necessitate an election of her successor with the first meeting of the league. This is scheduled for the initial Friday in October. At this time Mrs. Coleman, with her committee, was to have submitted the program for the year's study. The place of meeting is not yet decided, but when it is announced every member of the league should make it convenient to be present.

CARDS FROM MRS. BREUSTEDT NOW ON THE OCEAN

Cards were received by the Monday post which tell of the charming tour which Mrs. Breustedt and Miss Pauline Breustedt are making in Scotland. The party with which Mrs.
Breustedt made the continental trip arrived at home in time for Dr. Armstrong, the conductor, to come from Kentucky for the opening of Baylor University. Mrs. Breustedt remained an independent tourist and finds that she travels like a native. She and the daughter have found untold pleasure in Scotland. Her last mail left the romantic Burns country and there has since been a week in Ireland before sailing. Both report a glorious summer.

MR. AND MRS. ROY COLEMAN TO TAKE DEPARTURE

It has been the plan of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coleman for some time to take leave of their Waco friends. This is in order that Mr. Coleman may perfect his pronounced artistic talent.
His studio here has been sold, and he leaves at an early date to remain in advanced studio study. It is not quite decided whether a year shall be spent in New York City or that passage will be taken direct for Paris.
In either event, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will be in Paris for a prolonged sojourn before returning here, if they return to Texas at all. The remainder of their happy days among their Waco friends will be left in a gift to the public library. This will be the Coleman portrait of the late M. B. Davis, which attracted so much attention at the Cotton Palace. The date of departure is near at hand, but not named.

ADDITIONAL COMMITTEES FOR COTTON PALACE

Mrs. Bollinger announces that interest has already been manifest at woman's headquarters for the Cotton Palace. Letters are arriving from various places in the state inquiring about space, exhibits and general information. At home, the telephone inquiries are already begun. The chairmen who had not reported are now ready with their committees.

Mrs. Drucke announces as her assistants for the German department
Mesdames George Henjes, Jennie
Behrens Bruhl, S. Archenhold, A.
Schack, Paul Maaz, Fred Henjes and Fred Eggert. This is a strong committee and will doubtless have something of more than ordinary interest.

The illness of Mrs. John Sullivan has created a change in the floral display. Mrs. Susan Lyle Downs and Mrs. J. R. Mihan are joint chairmen.
Their assistants are Mesdames W. P.

Killingsworth, D. A. Kelly, A. R. Mc- Collum and Miss Esther Gross.

Mrs. William Edmond as chairman of the cotton modeling announces that her committee will be Mesdames Maud Cole and C. D. Bullock, with Misses Rose Edmond and Nell Symes.

MRS. W. E. SPELL BEGINS WORK AS CHAIRMAN

Immediately upon her appointment
as chairman of the Woodrow Wilson
club for this congressional district,
Mrs. W. E. Spell went over to Dallas to hold consultation with the general chairman of Texas, Mrs. Robertson.
She returned on Monday and will begin work at once. The first at hand is to raise among the women something towards the expense of the campaign fund. In this the women everywhere who feel an interest in seeing a Democratic president should communicate with Mrs. Spell at once.
They should either send her a contribution or indicate a willingness to assist in raising the apportioned amount for Waco, this county, and this district. The women talk enough.
Now is the time for them to work.
They should have sufficient pride in the principles of Democracy to further their success. Mrs. Spell can do much, but she can not do it all. She reports that the policy of Mrs. Robertson is to raise this money more from general contribution, from the small coin, and the many, rather than from the large coin and the few. So the smallest amount will be acceptable.

TEXAS HAS HISTORIC TREES OF VARIED INTEREST

In this season of tree observation and discussion, it is timely to call attention to what has been preserved in the matter of tree history in this state. Of course we all know the yew tree under which Gray wrote his famous elegy, and many more of like sentiment. But, coming into our own state, we cherish the three trees under which the whites fought the Indians on Galveston.

There is the Palo Alto tree, which gave its name to the first general battle between the United States and Mexico.

The great mission, the Alamo, received its name from the Alamo tree,
the word alamo meaning cotton-wood
and poplar.

De Leon's first expedition camped under a pecan tree on a stream. That stream was named Nueces because the word means nut.

Another expedition camped under a cypress tree on a stream from which came the Sabine river, the name meaning cypress.

There is a water oak on the battlefield of San Jacinto. Under this lay Sam Houston, wounded. To him was brought Santa Anna a captive. The spot is marked by an iron cross placed by the women of the Daughters of the Republic.

At Nacogdoches is Elm tree, under which the first Protestant sermon was preached in Texas.

An oak tree still stands at Columbia which overshadowed the first capitol of Texas.

Burnett held the first court in Texas under a large oak which is still preserved.

But the most famous of all, unless it be the one on San Jacinto, is the oak at La Grange, under which Dawson's men organized before they started on their fateful Mexican expedition.

The women of La Grange have inserted a plate to mark the history.
Tell your children the stories of these trees. It will add to their respect for Texas history and it will increase their love for the tree in which Waco boasts so proudly.

Society Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Witt are today returning to their apartments, Twelfth and Jefferson. They have been on the South Side for some time.
Saint Paul's rectory is re-opened.
Reverend and Mrs. Wittell are just arrived at home from their summer
trip to Tennessee.

Mrs. Richard Maxwell and Miss Annie Maxwell are with Mrs. J. R.
Stanard on South Fourth for the winter.

Several of the bachelors connected with Baylor University are this season accompanied by mother or sister. This will add materially to the Baylor colony.

Misses Lauren Gay and Ruth Hub-

by, with Miss Madeline Kyle of Temple, will be school companions for Balcourt, Washington City. They leave before the close of this month.
There is an interesting announcement to be made today.

Mrs. William Sleeper is returned from Fort Worth, where she went to accompany her son, Benjamin Sleeper, on his journey to Tennessee. He enters the famous old school of Sewanee.

A later decision detains Miss Dorothy Lake among her Waco friends and relatives for the winter term at Baylor University.

Now, really, how many of us can use a telephone intelligently? We think we can, but if we find out a little more of the office system we will change our minds.

The women all take kindly to bangs.
They have a softening effect on the face and are becoming to the great majority.

Is it not a consoling thought that every single daughter of Eve is better looking than her mirror shows her? How lovely that the defect is in the mirror!

Mrs. Blair Gilmer's return to the old home from Oklahoma is being welcomed by her personal friends and those of the church in which she was an active member. She is with Mrs.
Betty Gilmer on Colonial hill.

The visit of Miss Ellen Harden to relatives in Kentucky has proved so delightful she is prolonging her stay well into the autumn. There is no time named for her homecoming.

Mrs. Mattie Eubank, who has been absent more than a year, is now due in Waco. She reaches here late this month, when her place of local residence will be determined.

It is expected that the last of this week will note the breaking of the McLendon-Martin camp. This has extended throughout the summer and been of untold benefit to the health of Mrs. Abner McLendon.

It is now expected that among the Cotton Palace visitors will be Miss Estelle Lively, who, as the winter guest of Mrs. D. D. Cannon last season and a student at Baylor University, gave one of the popular girls.

Miss Lucile Britton, who has several times been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Grand, on Columbus street, has been in a critical condition in her home at Comanche. Mrs.
Grand is with her. A consultation was held on Monday and the decision of the physicians is awaited here with interest.

The women are certainly watching with keen interest the development of the situation which may give lights
to Cameron park.

An unusually attractive view comes on the card with which the Gross party writes of a delightful trip to Quebec. This view is a French chateau overlooking the Saint Lawrence at a point which much resembles the famous Bay of Naples, said to be one of the beauty spots of the world. The card brings no message as to the time for homecoming with this party.

If you are looking for something new and worth while in fiction, read
the book just published, "A Man's World." It is only a week old.

Mrs. Marguerite Patten Prince will be among her friends here for two months. This is while Dr. Prince does some special research work in Boston. In the meantime, the home in Ithaca, N. Y. remains closed.

Who is to be the next president of the Philo club, is a question heard frequently among the devotees of the Philo dances.

Getting located for the winter is a conundrum for the women. They are in a frenzy since desirable rooms
and houses are so much at a premium.

"Tea was never so good, and sandwiches were never so good, too," was the verdict of the golf players who found Mrs. A. W. Koch ready to serve when they reached the Huaco club on Saturday afternoon. They had encountered the downpour on the links and never did a tea table with a cherry little matron look more alluring.

After being closed all the summer,
the A. J. Barton home on Fifth and Webster is again open. Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Haughton are both re-

POSTAL CARD GREETINGS.

Views That Are of Waco and Interesting to Be Distributed.

The picture postal card is today one of the greatest factors in correspondence. It has come into general use, and since it was introduced there has been more interchange of greetings between friends who are absent one from the other, than ever before.
While but an hour in a town, a traveler will stop and mail a postal card
with a word of greeting to a friend in some other town or some other state. Where the ordinary postal card was seldom used before, the picture
postal card is now popular, and its use appears to be universal.

It is therefore touching a popular chord when the Cotton Palace management adopted the picture postal card. They have had issued one of the handsomest and neatest highly colored souvenirs that has been seen.

It shows the Main building, the Machinery Hall and Floral hall in rich tones, and the lettering is modest and attractive. There are thousands of these cards available for distribution.

They are in the hands of J. J. Hutchison, publicity manager, who has his office on North Fourth street, near Washington, in the building occupied by the street railway company. They are for free distribution to those who will call for them and agree to send them out, and it will be a convenient way for the Waco people to let their friends in other towns know of the Cotton Palace, and at the same time join in the general custom of postal card greetings.

CHARGE IS EMBEZZLEMENT.

Former Bank President To Answer
An Indictment.

Abilene, Sept. 16.—George S. Berry, former president of the First National bank of Merkel, was arrested at Tulsa, Okla., Saturday on an indictment alleging embezzlement of $4500,
the bill having been returned by the Tulsa county grand jury last week.

The indictment alleges that Berry,
while treasurer of the Merkel independent school district in 1909, embezzled the amount named. As soon as the information was returned a capias was forwarded to the sheriff's department at Tulsa, where the defendant has recently been making his home, and Sheriff Weir was notified.
Saturday by a telegraph message that service had been secured, and that Mr. Berry would return to this county without protest.

George S. Berry was formerly one of the most prominent, prosperous and popular citizens of Taylor county, and his friends are numerous in all of this section of the country. For a long time he was prominently connected with an Abilene bank, a good part of the time serving as cashier,
where in which capacity he made an enviable record. He moved from Abilene to Merkel, where he became president of the First National bank,
and was a leader among the citizenship of that place until he severed his connection a few years ago and moved out of the country.

THE CONTRACT IS LET.

Council and Ockander Bros. Sign Up
For Paving Work.

Taylor, Tex., Sept. 16.—The city council has signed the contract with Ockander Bros., the Waco contractors, for the construction of eight blocks of paving in Taylor's business section, work to begin on December 1.

The 2½-inch wood block was selected as the material to be used, and the foundation will be a 5-inch concrete base, with an inch cushion of sand and mortar.

The delay in the beginning of work was decided upon in order that the heavy fall business season might not be interrupted by the tearing up of the streets till after the main rush is over.

Arrest Indian Masher At Houston.

Houston, Tex., Sept. 16.—For the eighth time Singh, the Indian student,
is in the toils of the law, and on the same charge, that of making eyes at a young lady employee of a leading hotel. Singh, it is charged, stands about the hotel and gazes fondly at the young lady, refusing all efforts to have him desist. He has served several terms on the county road and is in a fair way to get there again.

He claims to have royal blood in his veins and there are persons here who substantiate his statements. Local settlement and charity workers have been much perturbed over his case.

Mothers With Their Babies Jailed.
Houston, Tex., Sept. 16.—As one result of raids made by the local police last night, three women are among the number locked up along with their babies. The mothers declined to be separated from their offspring,
with the result that all were locked up pending disposition of cases today.

Matador Dying; Gored By Bull.
Los Angeles, Sept. 16.—Francisco Del Valle Frascuelo, a matador, has died at a local hospital, gored by a bull which he attempted to throw by the horns at a celebration here yesterday. With thousands of Mexicans gathered about the enclosure at a local park, Frascuelo sprang over the wall, roused the waiting bull to rage
by waving a red flag and caught its horns. The bull threw him into the air, catching him on its horns. Then it dropped him to the ground and gored him through the side.

Death of Mrs. Laura Root.
Houston, Tex., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Laura Root, who was born in New Orleans in 1844, and who was the daughter of
R. A. Shepherd, founder of the First National Bank in this city, and the wife of the late A. P. Root, for many years its president, died at her home
in this city yesterday afternoon.

UGHT TO HELP MRS. SPELL.

Mrs. W. E. Spell of this city has been appointed for the Eleventh congressional district of Texas to have charge of the popular subscriptions for the Wilson-Marshall campaign fund, and she has energetically commenced her work. It is the announced purpose of the national democratic committee to accept subscriptions only from sources that are legitimate. Large contributions from those who might have an interest in future legislation will be rejected, and therefore the expenses of the campaign will have to be borne by the whole people. Texas can do very little for the national democracy except to contribute. We have no fight to make here; we have no close vote that will annoy us, and we know of the campaign only as the noise it makes echoes from the peaks of the Rocky Mountains upon one side and the Alleghenies on the other. We are democratic here; we will be true to the ticket when the votes are counted, and that without any exertion in Texas on behalf of a single man. But there are close states where work must be done. Presidential elections are won by the party which secures the vote of those who hold the balance of power, who go from party to party every four years. Neither party has a majority so far as organization people go, and all parties are trying to swing into line the great body of independent voters who decide their will after they know of the candidates and the platforms. The democratic campaign is to be one of education. It is to be an appeal to the reason of the people who will be influenced by the principles that are set down before them and the promises that are made for future action. Money is needed for this educational work. It is to be used in carrying on correspondence schools for the voters; in sending out literature; in circulating information and in distributing the text book. The women of Texas have undertaken to raise funds. They have not fixed a mark. They are going to raise all the money they can, and Mrs. Spell is one who has agreed to do a part. For the honor of Waco, as she is a Waco woman, and for the honor of the eleventh congressional district, which is represented in the congress by a man who has reached a very important position among his associates, the amount contributed through Mrs. Spell should be large. The Morning News hopes she will get every help in her efforts, and the democrats of this town, this county and this district are urged to give her encouragement and assistance.

The gentlemen who are directing the affairs of the Hot Well company are not giving their time or their energies in the hope of personal gain. They are working for the benefit of the city of Waco. They do not hope for a strike of anything more valuable than hot water, and they believe that this will benefit the entire citizenship of Waco, in that it will bring more people here, and will open the way to induce outside capital to invest in Waco property. If they strike oil or gas, it will be a big commercial proposition for the generous citizens who have been contributors to the fund, but who will be stockholders in the company. Anything but a dry hole or a "duster" will be worth something to Waco and Waco people. Therefore, every subscriber to the fund should pay his money now, so that the work can be carried to completion.

The Morning News had a caller Sunday in the person of one of the "globe trotters" who come with warm weather and stay as long as they can sell their photographs at 1000 per cent profit over the cost of production. They do not work, they produce nothing, they have no habitation, but go from town to town, collecting autographs of mayors and postmasters, who keep them in business by signing their book. The newspapers keep these fellows in business by boosting their game as they move from place to place. Less motility will starve the breed, and it would be well for Texas if they were kept outside the borders. The wagancy laws were framed to fit men who walk from town to town and do not work.

Waco schools made a fine showing at the opening yesterday. Now let the parents see to it that every boy and girl goes every day to the duties of the class room. Too many children fail to make their grades because indulgent parents allow them to remain at home because of some fancied excuse. School rooms are comfortable in all kinds of weather, and even when it is a bit cold, the discomfort experienced only between the home and the school building, and the chances are there is more attention given the heating of the school room than the heating of the home. Boys and girls are under the best control when they have the watchful eye of the careful teacher upon them.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Journal says, "Why not turn the Mexican disturbance over to Texas and let her put it down." Texas can do it and Texas will do it if the United States will only say the word. Governor Colquitt has indicated his desire to take a hand in the scrap, and he has several times threatened to do something on his own hook if the federal government does not see fit to protect the border. The Journal may have made that suggestion as a joke, but we people down here who are neighbors to Mexico know that the Mexicans think they can whip the United States if it wasn't for Texas, and they believe that Texas alone can clean up the entire army of Mexico.

There will be a general meeting and election of officers of the Young Men's Business league this evening. There should be a large attendance and every member should determine to put his shoulder to the wheel and help in the efforts of the organization during the coming year. The Young Men's Business league has been a strong factor in the development of Waco. It has done a good work for this city from month to month, and its activities have attracted attention to this town from all parts of the country. At the meeting tonight there will be a beginning for another year. Let every fellow come.

MRS. SPELL IS ENTHUSED.

Is Organizing Sub-Committee to Raise Campaign Funds.

While Mrs. W. E. Spell is not a suffragette and is willing for her husband to do the politics for the family, she is very much interested in the movement to raise funds for the Wilson and Marshall campaign, and she talks of it in a way that is convincing to the listener.

The women have started a fund for the democratic national committee. Mrs. Spell was invited to join it, and was appointed to head the committee for this congressional district. She has just returned from Dallas, where she had a conference with others who are in the movement and she comes home thoroughly enthused.

"The democrats must not be too confident," she said yesterday. "This presidential campaign is not won by any means, and if we become overconfident, we may find that the split in the republican party has thrown the election into the hands of representatives. We democrats of Texas are safe with our big majority owe a duty to the national party to help with contributions, and the women of Texas, composing the Wilson and Marshall organization are proposing to raise the funds necessary to give Texas representation as a contributing state."

"I am not prepared yet to outline the plan that we will follow in this city and this congressional district, to get the money that we are to contribute, but as soon as we can get sub-committees named we will give publicity to the plans in view."

Mobilization Order Rescinded.
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 16.—Mobilization of the Pacific fleet at San Francisco next month has been called off by orders received here by Rear Admiral V. L. Cottman, commanding the Puget Sound navy yard.

It is said that with the cruiser Maryland in Japan and four other cruisers in Mexican and Nicaraguan waters, mobilization was impracticable.

Dry Farming Congress.
Lethbridge, Alberta, Sept. 16.—One hundred prominent agricultural experimenters, railway officials and government investigators have accepted invitations to address the Seventh National Dry Farming congress to be held here October 19 to 23. Thirty countries, including the United States, Russia, Turkey, France, Persia, Australia, Mexico and Hungary, are to send representatives.

CAMPAIGN ON BY MARSHALL

VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE AT ST. JOE DENOUNCES HIGH PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

LARGE CROWD GREETED HIM

At Kansas City, Kan., Indiana's Governor Scores Roosevelt and the Progressive Party.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 16.—Governor Marshall, democratic vice presidential candidate, made his first campaign speech in Missouri here tonight. He was greeted by a large audience.

Governor Marshall devoted his address mainly to the protective tariff which he declared gave its beneficiaries a "monopoly on products and free trade on labor."

GOV. THOMAS R. MARSHALL.

Earlier in the day he had made a speech at Kansas City. On arrival here this afternoon he was taken to a hotel for dinner and a reception. Governor Marshall is accompanied by Mrs. Marshall and tonight during his address she occupied a box with a party of St. Joseph women.

Immediately after his speech he was hurried to the Union station and departed for Hannibal, Mo., where he is to speak tomorrow night.

In the opening of his speech here he reiterated his declaration that he was not soliciting votes for himself as he was only the tail of the kite and that if the voters could send up the kite without the tail they should do so. INSERT CAMPAIGN

High Tariff Is Denounced.
The governor in his speech here said:

"Impressed as I have been from the moral and constitutional viewpoints of the injustice of the high protective tariff, I have not wasted much time in studying its practical workings. Revelations, startling in their character, force themselves upon us, however. These revelations furnish economic reasons in abundance for a change."

"Take the argument that the high protective tariff has been maintained for the benefit of the American working man. What do the facts disclose? They disclose that we have given the tariff beneficiaries a monopoly on products and furnished them free trade in labor."

"Figures compiled by the United States Irrigation commission reveal that three-fourths of the workers in our protected industries have come to the United States from southern and eastern Europe since the reason was advanced that we have a high protective tariff for the benefit of the American workingman."

"Analysis of the figures reveals that the average wage per family has been $60 per month; that only forty per cent of the families are supported by the heads thereof; and that in the iron and steel industries one-tenth of the family earnings is made by the children, while one-fifth comes from boarders and lodgers. In seventeen thousand households examined there were two hundred and forty-six persons for each hundred sleeping rooms."

"The housing conditions challenge adequate description."

Perkins Is Scored.
"An investigation of the wine plant at Auburn, New York, of the International Harvester company, presided over by that disinterested patriot and philanthropist, George W. Perkins, revealed that women worked from ten to twelve hours each day, standing all the while in rooms the most unsanitary, and earned a dollar a day. Overworked and underfed, they are sapping out their lives and sapping the lives of posterity that the system may exist. If the farmers of this country are as patriotic and humane as I believe them to be, they will next year bind their harvests with rag garters, unless these conditions change."

"A word will suffice for the revelation of conditions at Lawrence, Mass., where wage-earners getting $7.00 a week were insulted by the advice to open an account with a trust company. Such information as the government has been able to obtain by its tariff board shows that the labor cost of weaving a yard of cloth is five cents, while the tariff duty for the benefit of the laborer is $1.02. Who got the other 97 cents?"

Governor Marshall then told of two Indiana implement concerns which he said had opened branches in Canada. He added:

"I have no definite knowledge why these industries opened up in the British domain, but I hazard a guess that the effect of the protective tariff on raw material and on trade relations with the world has convinced them that they can do more business and make more money while operating under the British empire than under the American government."

AT KANSAS CITY, KAN.
Says Black Flag of Piracy Floats Over Political Sea.
Kansas City, Kan., Sept. 16.—"Never has the black flag of piracy floated above the political seas as now; never was it saluted with so much honor," declared Governor Thomas R. Marshall, democratic nominee for vice president, in a speech here today.

"In all my political career I have never asked anybody to do so now. I am unfit for public office if my personal preference is more potent than the triumph of the cause I advocate. He is not a good soldier who is not willing to sacrifice himself in an effort to save his party standard. My personality is of slight moment to the voters of this country unless they believe in my party platform, and in my intent, if elected, to help carry out its pledges. I have no quarrel with the man who disagrees with me with reference to the democratic platform. He may be right, much as I doubt it."

A Vital Principle.
"This principle is vital: That every man in America has the right to run for office and to vote for whomsoever he chooses."

"When matters of great pith and moment are involved, a party is not dealing honestly with the voters unless it declares its principles and pledges its candidates to maintain them. A vote obtained through dissimulation is wrongfully obtained. "Could anything be more piratical than the open boast of the Roosevelt men that they kept still and waited until the Maine election carried before declaring their principles? Every regular republican vote obtained in this way in the state of Maine was fully as dishonest as the votes in the Chicago convention which nominated Taft."

"A party that opens its political meetings with prayer and sings, 'Onward, Christian Soldiers,' and claims to be the embodiment of pure politics and clean Americanism ought to be honest enough not to deceive the voter, not to dissemble, and not to resort to legal technicalities in order to force the voter either to vote for candidates he does not desire in office, or to vote against his principles."

"The progressives claim to be divorced from the republican party on the ground of non-support. They have renounced that party and all its works and all its ways. They claim that the republican party is even worse than the democratic party; yet here in the state of Kansas they propose to place the republican emblem above their progressive electors and thereby force the Taft republicans to do one of three things, none of which they want to do—to vote the progressive ticket; to vote against their principles and for the democratic ticket; or to stay away from the polls and not vote at all."

Not Honest Politics.
"That may be a mark of slick politics, but it is not a mark of honest politics. I should like to win the votes of the Taft republicans in Kansas, provided they really want to vote for me, but I insist that if they do not want to vote for me, they should have the right, as American citizens, to vote for Mr. Sherman."

"There can be no doubt as to the duty of a governor whose state faces this condition of affairs. He should at once convene his legislature to change the state's election laws. Every man in Kansas should have a chance to vote for the candidates he desired in office. It is also the duty of your governor to see that the republican party has its ticket upon the ballot and under its emblem."

Houston Man Dies Suddenly.
Houston, Tex., Sept. 16.—By the finding yesterday of the dead body of James A. McPherson in a thicket on the north side, a mystery which has been baffling the officials has been solved. He was the son of a well-known hotel proprietor. There were no evidences of foul play about the body and the coroner's verdict was that death came from natural causes. The supposition is the young man was overcome while out for a walk and died in the lonely and out of the way place.

Magnates Meet in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—Seventy-seven minor league players were today drafted by major league clubs at the annual meeting of the baseball commission in this city. Of this number, forty-seven will enter the American League, either during the remainder of this season or the beginning of the next, while the National League, through the fortunes of the draw, obtained thirty men.

Of the individual teams, the St. Louis Americans were by far the more fortunate, inasmuch as sixteen new faces will be seen on this team. The next in point of numbers is the Chicago National club, which got seven men. The Washington, Detroit and Chicago Americans and Cincinnati and Boston Nationals each drew six lucky slips from the hat. The Philadelphia Americans got five, while the Cleveland and the New York Americans and St. Louis Nationals each gained four. The Pittsburgh Nationals got three. The Philadelphia and Brooklyn Nationals drew blanks.

The contest for the more valuable players was more keen this year than in usual. Almost every man obtained from the class AA or class A teams was drafted by from two to thirteen teams.

The visitors, baseball presidents and managers, were entertained at a banquet tonight as the guests of Chairman Herrmann of the commission. Following is a partial list of the drafts allowed:

List of Players Drafted.

From Birmingham—Yantz, by St. Louis Americans; Chattanooga, Balenti, by St. Louis Americans; Montgomery, Walker, by St. Louis Americans; Nashville, Welch, by New York Americans; New Orleans, Wagner, by Brooklyn Nationals; Atlanta, Tarleton, by New York Americans; Vaseo, Taff, by Philadelphia Americans; and Jost, by Detroit Americans; Fort Worth, Russell, by Chicago Americans; San Antonio, Metz, by Boston Nationals; Knoxville, Morley, by Washington Americans; Knoxville, Vilem, by Cleveland Americans; Jacksonville, Cuesta, by St. Louis Americans.

The selection of Johnson of Birmingham by Chicago was set aside because of his release to a major league club under an agreement with the commission.

Some Drafts Set Aside.

The following appeared in the list of class A whose selection was set aside on account of the number: From Birmingham, Yantz, by St. Louis Americans and Chicago Nationals; Oyd, by Chicago and Brooklyn Nationals; Johnson, by Chicago Americans. Yantz was declared subject to draft.

From Chattanooga, Balenti, by St. Louis Americans and Chicago Nationals; Moore, by Detroit Americans. Balenti was declared subject to draft.

INSIDE FACTS

The public have been educated along nearly every line of thought—but did it ever strike you as peculiar that cigar manufacturers either don't care to, or are afraid to tell the public the inside facts about the cigars they make—about all you ever get is "display" signs with "catch lines"—that don't catch.

We have one cigar we are proud of—built to please men who really want a high grade, mild Havana smoke and we will try by actual photographs and explanations, couched in language so every smoker can understand, to tell exactly how and why.

Lawrence Barretts—

are combined from tobaccos to satisfy the smoker who wants a high-grade, MILD HAVANA CIGAR.

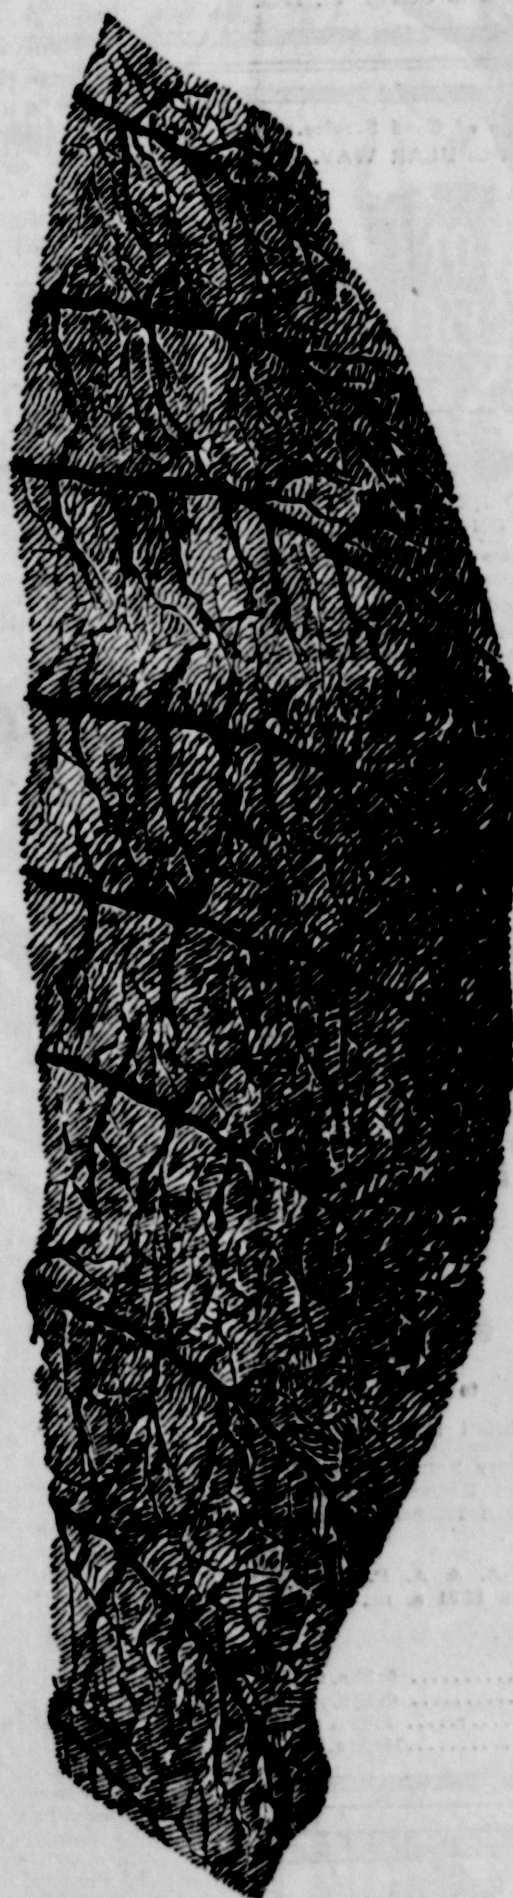

The Lawrence Barrett Filler

Actual photo of filler of a Lawrence Barrett which is selected from Cuban Leaf grown in Santa Clara Province, Cuba, and is noted for its delightful mild aroma.

A Very Important Feature

Actual photo of the finest imported Sumatra grown, used exclusively as wrappers on Lawrence Barretts. If you will remove this wrapper you will find it is absolutely tasteless—therefore, it is used only to dress and finish the cigar with the result that you can enjoy—unmolested—the full benefit of the delightful, mild aroma of the fine Santa Clara filler—and you actually have a Real Mild Havana Cigar.

The Lawrence Barrett Wrapper

Lawrence Barretts are made in several shapes—but if you want a good full smoke, we suggest you try the O. K. Perfecto shape at 10c straight—At all first class dealers—ask for a fresh one.

FOOTBALL AT ST. BASIL'S.

Four Teams Are Now Practicing for the Season.

Four football teams have been selected by Coach T. J. Cartwright of St. Basil's college, to represent that institution during the fall, the teams being chosen according to weight, the heaviest averaging over 130 pounds, the lightest under 90 pounds.

Light practice is being given the men at regular intervals during the day, the first work having been done yesterday. For the first week the schedule will be as follows:

At 6 o'clock in the morning the men

turn out for a game of association football (used merely for practice purposes) and a mile run.

At the morning recess, 15 minutes are spent in punting and drop kicking.

From 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon until 5 o'clock rule reading and signal making takes up the time. This is in the club rooms.

From 6:45 in the evening until 7 o'clock the men are jogged and then a practice game of association football is indulged in.

According to Coach Cartwright, the really heavy work, such as tackling and falling on the ball will not be taken up for another week. He further declares that the material he now has on hand "looks good," but says that he has several men in view for the first team who have not yet reached the college. One is a Canadian.

The schedule of games with other colleges has not yet been completed.

Y. M. C. A. FOOTBALL.

First Real Game of the Season Is Played.

The first real game of sure-enough football was played at the Cotton Palace park yesterday between the followers of Capt. Rex McReynolds and Capt. Leslie Wohlberg. Wohlberg and his team won the game by a score of 20 to 0. Considering that the boys have had no practice the game was well played. Some of the plays and tackles were worthy of a team much older than these youngsters.

The next game will be played today at 4 p. m. between Hicks and Terrence.

CAR SUPPLY AT FAMINE STAGE

SHIPPERS IN WACO AND OTHER
TEXAS CITIES HAVE TROUBLE
SECURING EQUIPMENT.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS

September Term of Railroad Commission Opens Today—Waco Is to Be Represented.

The supply of cars in Waco and in many other Texas cities according to reports received here yesterday, has about reached the minimum and from now on the shippers are to experience great difficulty in the movement of goods. In Waco it is said, no cars are obtainable, the congestion being about as complete as it could possibly be. An instance was cited that when the city a few days ago sought to find a car in which to send the wrecked patrol wagon to the factory east, only one car was found available and that over the Houston and Texas Central railroad. Inquiry at all of the railroads showed that every car was in use.

Every year a car shortage is experienced in Texas, but not this early in the season. When the movement of cotton to the compresses began some weeks ago, the car supply was almost at a minimum. Since that time the shortage has steadily increased, and now that deliveries of fall shipments are about due, the railroads in all parts of the country are finding themselves strictly up against it.

Reports continue to reach the Waco Freight Bureau from all sections of the country of the car famine and predic- tion is made serious interference to business is to result if some speedy remedy is not applied.

COMMISSION HEARING TODAY.

Waco's Interests Are To Be Represented at Austin.

J. C. Dillard, traffic manager of the Waco Freight Bureau, and Alf A. Edwards, president of the White Rock Gravel and Sand company, left last night for Austin to attend the meeting of the state railroad com- mission, which is set for today. This will be the first meeting of the com- mission has held since last May, having adjourned in that month for the summer term.

The hearing was originally set for last Tuesday, but on account of the absence of two of the commissioners, it was postponed until today.

The matter of adjusting express rates in Texas, set for today, has been postponed until the October term of the commission. This is regarded by shippers as one of the most im- portant matters to come up before the commission this year, much interest being taken in it throughout the state. The attorney general's department recently ruled that the law required ex- press companies doing business in this state to have general offices in the state, but it was not necessary that officials of the companies should reside within the state.

Several propositions of interest to Waco shippers are to come up at the September term of the commission. Mr. Dillard expects to remain at Aus- tin until these matters have been called.

S. P.'s MEXICO INTERESTS.

United States Asked To Protect the Company's Property.

The Southern Pacific Railroad com- pany a few days ago asked the United States government to protect its prop- erty in Mexico. The Southern Pacific's interest in Mexican railroads stands in the name of the Southern Pacific Railroad of Mexico.

This company has $75,000,000 stock, all of it owned by the Southern Pacific company, and has a route 1,500 miles long, of which 912 miles was completed and in operation at the close of the fiscal year ended June 30, 1911. Probably very little has been done in the way of construction since that time. Operation was very seriously interfered with in the revolu- tion which resulted in the overthrow of Diaz, so that difficulties on account of insurrections are no new things. The road was one of Mr. Harriman's projects, being organized in accordance with concessions secured by him from the Mexican government. The Southern Pacific has supplied the money for construction, largely on loans made from Union Pacific.

Sketches of Katy Engineers.

Frank D. James of Missouri, a well known passenger engineer on the M. K. & T., is preparing a biographical history of all the engineers on the M. K. & T. railway, which, according to present plans, will be ready for publication in a few months, and which will probably be completed by Janu- ary 1, 1912.

Mr. James has been very busy for weeks securing the necessary data, and the book will no doubt be greatly appreciated by railroaders.

It will contain brief sketches of the engineers on the various divisions, to- gether with the number of years they have been in the service and much other information as may be of inter- est.

Mr. James has been in active service on the Katy for 31 years, and is among the top-notchers in the senior- ship. Billy Willis, an engineer run- ning between New Franklin and St. Louis, is the oldest engineer, while Engineer Alonzo Snow of Sedalia, is the second.

Prices for Selling Company.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—William H. Jones of Foster, Cal., one of the vice presi- dents of the International Harvester company, testified today in the gov- ernment's suit for the dissolution of that corporation under the Sherman anti-trust law, that in July, 1902, he went to New York in response to a telegram from President Elbert H. Gary of the steel corporation, and in consequence of that visit the Plano Manufacturing company was sold to the Harvester company. That was the year in which the government charged the Harvester company with a trust in restraint of trade.

Mr. Jones was president of the Plano Milling company, capitalized at $50,000. His testimony was taken be- fore Special Examiner Robert S. Tay- lor, with Edwin P. Grosvenor special assistant to the attorney general ap- pearing for the government.

Meets George W. Perkins.
"When I received Mr. Gary's tele- gram," said Mr. Jones, "I went to New York. He took me to the office of J. P. Morgan and company where he introduced me to George W. Per- kins. Perkins asked me whether I wanted to sell it. I told him I would on a fair basis. I did not know to whom he wished me to sell but at the end of the month I was told to whom, and I agreed to accept stock in the company for the Plano company. I knew Mr. Perkins was trying to get other companies. He said he already had an option on a Milwaukee plant."

"Why did you sell to one Lane (that being the name appearing in the transaction) instead of to the new company?" asked Mr. Grosvenor.

"That was a matter the lawyers arranged."

"Did you ever attend any of the stockholders' meetings of the Harves- ter company?"

"No, my stock was held for ten years by Mr. Perkins, Charles Deering and Cyrus H. McCormick, the voting trustees."

After Mr. Jones' examination, at- torneys announced it was not decided "whether Mr. Perkins would be called as a witness for the government."

Funk Gives Testimony.
Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the Harvester company, testified that the company owned all the stock in the following companies: Inter- national Flax Twine company, St. Paul; Wisconsin Steel company, of which H. A. Perkins, the president is also a division manager, in the Harvester company; Wisconsin Lumber com- pany, of which H. F. Perkins is presi- dent; Illinois Northern Railroad com- pany, of which F. B. Montgomery is the president, and also is the head of the tariff department of the Har- vester company.

Mr. Funk declared the Harvester company bought the products of plants other than those in which it held stock. He said he often was galled upon to act as umpire to de- termine the prices at which the In- ternational Harvester Company of America, the selling company, was to pay for the products of the In- ternational Harvester company of New Jersey, the producing company.

"We aim to buy," he said, "from the New Jersey company at the same price we would buy from any other company. But it is a fact that the American company has paid no divi- dends."

transportation rates on cattle and calves from points in New Mexico to Kansas City and eastern points were suspended today by the Interstate commission from September 25 until January 24. The advances were filed by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway and would effect all of its af- filiated lines.

Katy to Have Block System.
The installation of a block signal system between Hillsboro and Austin is being contemplated by the Missou- ri, Kansas and Texas railroad. This system has been in operation on the Southern Pacific for some time.

The Katy, it is said, plans to in- stall the system on all of its lines dur- ing the course of time. Automatic gates at street crossings in Waco are also to be installed.

Extension of Frisco Line.
Austin, Sept. 16.—The railroad com- mission has been notified by the head of the Frisco line that the extension of the Brownsville road leading out of Heyser, in Calhoun county, to Tivoli, in Refugio county, a distance of ten miles, has been completed. The line is being extended from Tivoli to Austin, on San Antonio bay. This extension will be ready for operation within a few weeks.

Engineers Locate Line.
Cleburne, Sept. 16.—Several sur- veys have been made by the engineers who are locating the right-of-way for the Cleburne-Hillsboro line. One line has been run by Grandview.

Terminals To Be Installed.
Austin, Sept. 16.—The promoters of the San Antonio, Rockport & Mexican line have secured rights for placing terminals on Harbor Island.

MR. RENT PAYER

How long have you been paying house rent? Some of you one year, some five, others ten to twenty years. None of the money thus expended ever comes back to you in the way of a credit on a home, or in any other way. When you pay rent, do not expect it back. You may pay all a place is worth in rent, the place still belongs to some one else. Why continue?

We will lend you the money at 5 per cent interest to buy or build
you a home and let you pay it back just like rent—small monthly payments.

You have thrown enough money away. Why not get out of the rut.

COTTON IS IRREGULAR

FAVORABLE WEATHER REPORT CAUSES DOWNWARD COURSE.

Close Steady at Net Decline of 23 to 26 Points—Cables Are Lower.

New York, Sept. 16.—The cotton market was irregular today, with the general tendency downward, owing to more favorable weather reports, and the close was steady at a net decline of 23 to 25 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 10 to 13 points, under realization by buyers of last week, believed to be influenced by lower cables than due and indications that the gulf storm had passed northward, causing no more than moderate precipitation, and without high winds. There was a good demand around the opening figures and during the middle of the morning prices rallied 7 or 8 points from the lowest on covering by early sellers and fresh buying, apparently attracted by a bullish weekly review of the crop outlook by a leading southern trade authority. Detailed weather reports, however, seemed to confirm the early view of the storm, and with the outlook for generally clearing weather in the south the market turned easier again after midday. Rumors that the south was selling hedges a little more freely and reports of showers in south Texas contributed to the selling, which became general, and prices showed a net loss of 23 to 27 points, in the late trading. There was just enough covering to give the market a steady tone the last few minutes, but final prices were the lowest of the day. Houses with Liverpool connections were considerable sellers here during the morning.

Receipts today 50,225 bales, against 24,861 last week and 54,197 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston 24,792, against 22,065 last year; at New Orleans 17,221, against 29,131 last year, and at Houston 36,212, against 34,010 last year.

The close was steady.

New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 16.—Cotton futures opened steady at a decline of 8 points on poor cables and bearish private crop accounts. Local press reports on the crop were also considered bearish. Telegrams from south Texas stated that more cotton has already been ginned in many sections than was raised last year. Soon after the call the market was 9 to 10 points down. Shorts took profits and the demand from this source was more than the market could supply. At the end of the first half hour prices were 1 to 4 points down. Selling increased toward the middle of the morning and the market fell off quickly again. The offerings were based chiefly on reports of heavy ginning, the large movement of the new crop and reports from spot interests that spinners were not in the market to the usual extent at this time of the year in sympathy with the high grade of new crop offerings. The market was not active and trading was chiefly by professionals. At noon trading months were 1 to 14 points down Saturday's last prices. In the afternoon the market was dull and easy. At 2 o'clock prices were 25 to 26 points under Saturday's close. The close was steady at a net decline of 18 to 25 points.

MORE THAN ELEVEN THOUSAND BALES HERE THIS YEAR

Future Market Declines on Report of Condition—Spot Quotations in Waco Yesterday.

Cotton receipts at the public cotton yards in Waco for the season of 1912 up to last night totaled 11,301 bales. Yesterday's receipts were 375 bales. The receipts so far this season have far outstripped that of the season of 1911, with indications that heavy marketing of cotton will continue as the crop is opening rapidly.

The future market declined on the report of the Times-Democrat of New Orleans, giving the condition of the crop, and the disappearance of the storm disturbance in the Gulf, and general selling by the Waldorf bear crowd in New York. The spot market in Waco in the forenoon was: Good middling 11 1/4. Strict middling 11 1/4. Middling 11 1/4. In the afternoon prices declined 1/4 to 3/16 on lower closing of future markets.

WHEAT SHOWS WEAKNESS

CAUSED BY HEAVY INCREASE IN VISIBLE SUPPLY.

Receipts at Primary Centers Enormous and Shipments Larger Than Expected—Market Dragged.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Wheat showed weakness today under the weight of a big increase in the visible supply. The close was nervous at prices varying from Saturday night's level to 1/4c below. Latest trading left corn ranging from 1 1/4c off to 1/2c up, oats down 1/4c, and provisions less expensive by 5c@32 1/2c.

Visible supply figures for wheat were nearly three times those of the corresponding week a year ago. Today's receipts at primary centers were also enormous, double the total of twelve months back. Shipments were larger than expected. Accordingly the market dragged after it had made an early upturn due to higher cables and rough weather northwest.

Frost reports led to a little buying flurry in corn, but belief became widespread that little, if any, damage would result. Assertions that the yield would break the record attracted considerable attention. Cash buyers were out of the market until a break of 2c stirred business.

Oats followed wheat downward. Export trade was at a standstill. Foreigners were said to be filled up, and Russia was offering freely. December touched an outside limit 3 1/2c, and 3 1/2c, with the close off 1/4c, at 32 1/2c.

Weakness in the hog market carried provisions down. Pork led the way, finishing 2 1/2c@2 1/2c easier than forty-eight hours before.

LOCAL WHOLESALE MARKET

ONE ROLLING MILL ANNOUNCES IT IS OUT OF MARKET.

The First Car of Colorado Beet Sugar Reaches Here—Scarcity of Meal Is Reported.

The National Rolling Mills company of Vincennes, Ind., manufacturers of iron goods and sheet and galvanized iron, which supplies much of the trade of central Texas, is out of the market and will receive no further orders for iron goods until the present accumulation of orders has been disposed of. This was announced in a letter to local wholesale hardware and iron dealers yesterday. This is the first company to announce itself swamped with orders, although all others are said to be from six to eight weeks behind on filling orders. Galvanized iron sheets advanced $3 per ton and black sheets $2 per ton, with a proportionate advance on corrugated iron of all kinds yesterday, according to information received by local dealers. The advance is in line with the general advance in all iron goods which has been in progress for some weeks, stimulated by the great demand for all kinds of iron manufactured wares.

Produce and Groceries.
The first car of Colorado beet sugar of the season reached Waco yesterday. It was placed on the market at about ten cents a hundred below cans sugar.

Canned tomatoes show a strong market, with the prices expected to advance. The Lima bean markets are also very strong, and Lima beans are expected to be very high. The local supply is shipped from Colorado.

Fresh Colorado potatoes are on the market at 90 cents a bushel. A car of new-packed pickles was received in the local market yesterday.

A scarcity in the supply of meal is being felt by all dealers at present. The absence of good corn for the mills is responsible for the shortage. It is expected the local mills will secure a shipment of meal today.

The fall rush of business is putting the railroads behind with shipments, one grocery company stating yesterday that it had six or seven cars on the road which should have been here a week ago.

Arkansas Jonathan apples are on the market.

Lemons sold for $7.50 per box yesterday and producers say the market will go much higher. Some expect it to reach $10 per box.

Limes are being expressed here in small quantities.

TO BUILD A NEW MANSE

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN HAS LET CONTRACT FOR BUILDING.

Will Be Two Stories and Contain Seven Rooms—A Lot of Building Permits.

A contract was let yesterday by the second Presbyterian church for the erection of a new manse, the building to be erected on the vacant lot owned by the church and adjoining it, the cost of the building to be $2300.

The building will be of frame, two stories and containing seven rooms. It will replace the old manse owned by the church and situated on the corner of Morrow and Thirteenth streets. This latter property was recently sold for $3300, at the time it being intended to reinvest the money in another house and lot. The fact that the congregation could more economically and better fill the need for a manse by utilizing some of the land adjoining the church building was brought to the attention of the deacons, and this plan culminated in the letting of the contract yesterday.

It is believed that the building will be ready for the occupancy of Rev. John J. Grier and his family within thirty days.

The following building permits were issued from the office of the city secretary yesterday.

TO GIVE PRETTY BLOTTERS.

J. J. Hutchison Will Have Some About Cotton Palace.

Do you use a blotter?

Have you a friend who uses a blotter?

These questions are very pertinent, because the Cotton Palace management proposes to use blotters as one of the means of publicity. J. J. Hutchison, who has charge of the publicity work, having opened an office on North Fourth street in the same building with the street railway company, is getting up some very handsome blotters which will be beautifully illustrated. They are to be just the size to fit an ordinary business envelope, and they will be suitable for the business man's desk or the ladies' writing table. These are to be furnished to all citizens of Waco who will agree to send them in their mail to friends and business associates in other towns, reminding them of the dates of the Cotton Palace and impressing upon them the fact that Waco wants every one to come.

Another advertising feature which will be attractive will be handsome panels illustrated with Indian characters. These are in colors and one of them, a medallion with the head of an old chief in fine relief, is very attractive. These will be ready for distribution as soon as they can be brought from the printers.

BRIDE CARRIED SIX-SHOOTER.

Louisiana Girl Determined—Elopement Was Not To Be Prevented.

New Orleans, Sept. 16.—Determined to wed despite all obstacles, Emmet R. Solomon and Miss Lucille Bonnette, both of Alexandria, La., slipped away to New Orleans and were married yesterday. The bride displayed a six-shooter after the ceremony and explained that she was prepared to use it had any one tried again to stop the wedding. It was their third attempt to elope within the past week and both heaved sighs of relief when the ceremony was over.

They made their first attempt last Wednesday in an automobile, but the machine broke down shortly after they got under way. The next day they got as far as the minister's, when young Solomon was arrested on charges of bigamy and abduction preferred by the girl's father. He was later released under bond, but the bride father, determined to prevent the elopement, locked the girl in her room.

During the night the girl slipped out of the window and met her lover. They came to New Orleans and were married at noon yesterday at the Gretna court house just across the river. Last night the couple left for Alexandria to ask forgiveness.

Little Ceremony About Inauguration of the Session—All Down to Books Today.

They have gone, the little people, And in every darkened room There is now a heavy silence Like the stillness of a tomb.

Only ghosts of children wander Up and down the empty hall, Only phantom voices answer To the mother's yearning call.

No longer childish riots Storm about the mother's knee, Only tender memories linger Where the children used to be.

No tear bedims the mother's eye As token of her grief— In fact one almost might detect Some symptoms of relief.

Even though her angels all have gone Her heart is far from sore— She knows they'll all be rushing home A little after four.

Increase in Attendance.
With an aggregate attendance of 2739 white pupils, or 205 more than on the first day last year, the city schools began their work for the first term of the scholastic year yesterday, all of the teachers being on hand for the grading of the pupils. School lasted but half a day in most of the grades, but the teachers for the most part remained at their desks until late in the afternoon, getting their records in shape, and getting all in readiness for smooth sailing from today.

Complete reports had been received by Superintendent Lattimore from but two of the negro schools up to last night, these being the Seventh street school and the high school. While the records could not be had at once on either of these, it is believed that the attendance in both is a slight increase over the attendance of the first day last year.

The openings of the various schools in the city yesterday were not marked by any unusual ceremonies. The bells tapped at 9 o'clock in the morning and the little folks, many of them accompanied by their parents, assembled in the various school rooms prepared to tackle their books for a year's wrestling match.

Some, coming to school for the first time, were wide-eyed and interested in knowing just what was going to "come off" every next minute. Others, clinging to their parents' hands, or being conveyed by elder brothers or sisters, cried a little as an evidence that their entrance into the great world of independent and individual struggle was something of a wrench to their young home-loving hearts. But more young faces, coming to receive promotions from their grades of last year to the one above, appeared radiantly happy, and as they trudged along with book sacks and lunches, seemed perfectly willing to be once again numbered among the hosts seeking to learn and fit themselves for useful careers in this world.

Must Be Successfully Vaccinated.
The youngsters yesterday in every school were warned that if they have not been successfully vaccinated they must be vaccinated at once or they will not be allowed to continue in the city schools. Children were also instructed to tell their parents that if the young members of their families who have never been to school expect to attend one of the Waco schools during the first term, they must be entered before the close of next week. Otherwise, says Superintendent Lattimore, they will not be allowed to enter until the beginning of the spring term.

Attendance by Districts.
The comparative attendance in the various white schools of the city, as given out by Superintendent Lattimore yesterday afternoon, was as follows:

First district—This year 143, last year 175, decrease 32.
Second district—This year 237, last year 368, decrease 31.
Third district—This year 422, last year 432, decrease 10.
Fourth district—This year 290, last year 233, increase 57.
Fifth district—This year 364, last year 317, increase 47.
Sixth district—This year 329, last year 302, increase 27.
Seventh district—This year 342, last year 299, increase 43.
Eighth district—This year 433, last year 417, increase 16.
Ninth district—This year 66, last year 54, increase 12.

Among the negro schools, the Seventh street school yesterday reported 72 in attendance, and the high school 162.

A full school day will be put in at all of the schools today.

Deaths and Burials

Funeral of W. E. Jones.

The funeral of W. E. Jones, who had been in the United States navy, having been here only a few weeks ago to visit his parents, took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence on the corner of Twenty-seventh and Webster streets, following the arrival of the body from Philadelphia. The interment was in Oakwood.

FOR GOOD CAR SERVICE IN THE LOCAL COURTS

DOUBLE TRACK ON CLAY STREET SOON TO BE FINISHED.

Cotton Palace Crowds Will Be Handled Rapidly Because of the New Work.

Better accommodations for street car transportation will be provided by the Southern Traction company for the Cotton Palace crowds this year, than are provided by any street railway system in any town in Texas at a big fair.

Superintendent H. E. Ross states that the work on the double track on Clay street will be completed next week and by the time of the Cotton Palace it will be settled and fixed in its bed and solid for the traffic that is to be handled. This double track runs from a point on Eighth street, fifty feet south of Jackson, to Thirteenth street, which is beyond the gates of the Cotton Palace. It gives more than two thousand feet of double track, and will enable the cars to be continually moving, because the only single track that will be on that line will be a portion of the line between Jackson street and Austin avenue, a distance of three blocks. Last year the crowds were handled rapidly by the company but the traffic this year is to be taken care of in fine shape. The handling of this traffic is under the direction of Mr. Durham who is one of the most capable street car men in the country. He proposes to give his personal attention to it and the Cotton Palace management expects to advise the people in all parts of Texas that they will not be delayed by slow street car service when they go to and from the grounds. The excellent facilities which are to be provided by the Traction company will be one of the features of the Cotton Palace.

MR. GORMAN IS HOME

COMMISSIONER RETURNS AND GETS INTO HARNESS.

Spends the Day With City Engineer Inspecting Work He Had Outlined. Street Car Request.

Back from his vacation and right into harness, Commissioner P. A. Gorman spent yesterday with Engineer George E. Byars going over the street work that has been in progress since he left.

Commissioner Gorman was granted a leave of absence about five weeks ago, and has spent the time in Battle Creek, Mich. When he appeared on the streets yesterday morning, his friends gave him a cordial greeting, and it was noticed that he comes back much improved in appearance, indicating that the rest has done him good. He was anxious to get right into the work, and did not lose a day. With City Engineer Byars, he made an inspection of much of the work which he had outlined before he left and which has been in progress during that time. When asked yesterday what he could do in regard to the request of the street car company for more franchise rights on North Fifth street, he said:

"I only know in a general way that they want the right to establish the turnouts. I have not looked over the blue prints but I am disposed to grant all reasonable concessions to the company in order to allow them to give the best service. A street car system that does not serve the people is of no benefit, and as the Waco company is endeavoring to increase facilities so as to better the service, I will be willing to grant it."

Mr. Gorman's views have great weight with his associates on the commission. There has not been a question brought up affecting his department since he has been gone, but that every consideration was expressed for the views of Mr. Gorman. The members of the commission would not overturn any plans he had made, nor would they pass finally on the question that had to do with his department. "We will wait until Mr. Gorman returns" was always the answer and had he heard the courteous way in which this was always said, it would have made him well satisfied with the high regard in which he is held by his associates.

Will Not Close Office Here.

That a report which has been in circulation here to the effect that the local United States navy recruiting station is to be closed in this city on October 8, is without foundation, and that so far as he knows, the station will continue in operation here indefinitely, was the statement of Quartermaster H. E. Browder, in charge of the office, yesterday afternoon.

"I have positively received no order from the department to go to Fort Worth, as has been stated, and I presume the local office will be kept open for an indefinite period. I have had no information as to when it will be closed," said the quartermaster, "nor do I know that it will be closed at all."

PEST IN APPLE ORCHARDS.

Entomologist Miller is to go to Dublin to look into it.

E. A. Miller, of Austin, assistant entomologist of the state department of agriculture, is in the city and will leave this morning for Dublin to investigate pest destruction in apple orchards in that section.

Mr. Miller is making this trip of inspection at the request of Sam H. Dixon, state orchard and nursery inspector. Mr. Dixon has been advised that a bug or a disease is destroying the apple orchards there. Mr. Miller will spend several days in that section and may go to Gorman and Rising Star before he returns.

JUDGE MUNROE IMPANELS THE GRAND JURY FOR THE TERM.

R. W. Bass of Mart is Foreman—The Judge Gives His Ideas of Criminal Laws of the State.

Judge Richard J. Munroe in the Fifty-fourth district court yesterday appointed R. W. Bass of Mart foreman of the grand jury for the September term, when the following were sworn in:

In his address to the grand jury, Judge Munroe said: "From an investigation of the penitentiaries and the number of men confined in them it seems that the criminal laws are pretty well enforced in this state. It seems that the most complaint is that perhaps in some cases where there has been an unlawful killing, there has been a miscarriage of justice. Now, of course, the sympathies of the trial jury may cause them to turn men loose that ought to be punished, and perhaps a man ought to be punished for taking human life and the jurors are carried away with their sympathies and perhaps they discharge defendants who ought to be punished. And then, too, under the decisions and under the statutes it is made pretty hard for a trial jury to try a murder case without committing some technical error which, it seems to me, really does not affect the merits of the case, when the defendant is guilty perhaps beyond any doubt, to say nothing of a reasonable doubt. In the hurry and confusion in the course of the ordinary trial it is the easiest matter in the world for the trial judge to make some little error which the higher court considers ground for reversal. I believe that with a few changes in the statutes and perhaps some amendments to our laws we can cure a great many of the complaints that have heretofore been made. Now when we take into consideration the fact that it took two years to try the Camorra in Italy it seems to me that in this country we are getting along pretty well. I know the men who made up our system of procedure in Texas were just about the peers of any lawyers in any state in the union, and I think a great deal of the criticism and hue and cry in some newspapers and by some people who are uninformed is without any particularly good basis. It is easy enough to criticize, but when it comes to fixing a remedy, that is a different thing. I think, myself, perhaps that punishment for taking human life is not certain enough in Texas."

In instructing the grand jurors as to their duties Judge Munroe suggested he thought it unnecessary for them to take up much of their time investigating misdemeanors. His idea was that the principal function of the grand jury was to investigate felonies and return indictments in felony cases. Misdemeanors, he said, could be investigated by the different justice courts over the county and by the county court upon information filed by the county attorney. He stated specifically that he was not instructing them to disregard misdemeanors, but that he did not think the grand jury should take up its time investigating matters that could be just as thoroughly investigated by other agencies.

LAW PROTECTS GUN TOTER.

Negro on Way to Pick Cotton Proves He is a Traveler.

Dismissing Aaron Hicks, a negro, yesterday charged with carrying concealed weapons, Judge Tom L. McCullough, from the bench of the county court, paid his respects to the Texas statute which permits the carrying of concealed weapons by persons who are traveling from one place to another.

"It has been proven in this case that the defendant was on his way to the Katy depot to catch a train; that he was going to a nearby station to begin picking cotton. It strikes me that when negroes get caught carrying pistols about here that they learn just about as soon as they get a lawyer that they are travelers. It strikes me as being strange how suddenly some of them do become travelers. However, I would just like to take this opportunity to express myself on an outrageous law such as this. I think it is a disgrace and should be wiped from the statute books. Since the law is clear in this case, I dismiss the defendant."

CLERKS IN A MEETING

CAMPAIGN FOR LARGER MEMBERSHIP IS TO BE MADE.

Speeches at the Social Session Where Refreshments Are Served—Good Fellowship.

A meeting, in which speech-making, good fellowship and good music mingled, was held last night under the auspices of the Retail Clerks' association and the Ladies' Label League in the Labor Temple, Eighth and Washington streets, and plans were discussed for the strengthening of both of these organizations, for cementing of closer relations with the employers, and for interesting the purchasers in the welfare of the clerks.

That the session attained its object was the consensus of opinion at the close of the exercises, voiced by President E. L. Duke of the Retail Clerks, who presided. He urged that the members of both the clerks and the ladies' organizations make strenuous efforts to secure more members within the next thirty days, during which a special dispensation has been arranged by which the initiation fees have been cut to the minimum.

H. B. Cornelison introduced the first speaker of the evening, President E. L. Duke of the Retail Clerks, who presided. Mr. Duke made the welcoming address, declaring that the meeting had been called to give both customers and prospective members an idea of the work of the two organizations, as well as to foster the spirit of co-operation and good fellowship already existing among the members.

To Make Relations Better.
He explained that the organizations were neither antagonistic to the proprietors, and said that the cementing of compact organizations would in the end mean as much to the employers as to the clerks themselves, in that, by organization and study, the clerks would be lifted to a higher level and made worth more money to their employers. He pointed out the fact that to get better salaries, the clerks must make themselves worth the money, and he declared that he believed by organization and the study of their professions they would become much more valuable to the proprietors.

"Then, too," he said, "we are humans; we have families and we want to educate our children. We do not want to be forced to allow them to enter the sweat boxes of the factories. We are ambitious to give them the proper education and to rise above the level we have reached ourselves."

Mr. Duke also laid stress on the benefits to be secured by the clerks from the insurance features of the organization, telling of the sick benefits. He closed by inviting all of the clerks of the city to join the union.

Rev. P. H. Falk Talks.
Rev. P. H. Falk, pastor of the East Waco Baptist church, was then introduced by Mr. Duke.

Dr. Falk first stressed the necessity of organization. He showed what organization is doing in the commercial world. Since in the industrial world it is worth while to organize, he declared that it was equally important to have organization among the working people, saying that not only the working people, but the public generally, and even the employers, would be benefited thereby.

From the religious standpoint, the speaker said that the religion of Jesus stands for unity and fraternity. The labor problem, he said, will be solved when each learns that he is his brother's keeper.

T. W. McClelland.
T. W. McClelland, president of the Central Labor Council, was the next speaker on the program. He heartily endorsed what those before him had said, and stressed the necessity of the clerks to form a compact organization if they desired to materially better their condition. He gave some reminiscences relative to the growth of the labor movement within the past ten or fifteen years, and gave specific instances of the betterment of the wage earner's condition as a result.

Following the serving of refreshments and several selections by the orchestra, Mrs. Ruth Walker of the Ladies' Label League was introduced by President Duke.

Mrs. Walker's address was chiefly given over to urging that the clerks make strenuous efforts to increase their membership within the next thirty days. She spoke especially of the movement from the woman's standpoint. She said union was essential to the women because at best she failed to command more than a bare living wage, while the men already commanded better salaries than the women. She urged that customers, when entering stores, ask for union clerks and demand to see their cards. She said that nothing could help the cause more than for customers to insist that they be waited on by union clerks, whether the clerks are men or women.

President of Carpenters.
W. S. Grandling, president of the carpenters' union, heralded by Mr. Duke as one of the best friends in Waco of the clerks' organization, when called upon, said: "The reason I take such especial interest in the organization of the clerks is because women and children, the most defenseless of human beings, are dependent upon your success, and I think that every effort to build the organization ought to be made."

Following more music, the session was adjourned.

Motor Trip From Fort Worth.

KATY TO PUT IN GATES IS FOR NEW MEMBERS

SIGNAL BELLS TO BE INSTALLED AT CROSSINGS NOW.

Within Six Months the Work of Putting in Gates to Be Operated from Tower Starts.

Intending to install signal bells at all crossings in Waco at once, and automatic gates within six months, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas will endeavor to protect their tracks at busy intersections in the future.

The city commission, at its meeting last Friday passed a resolution providing for watchmen at certain crossings of the Katy and the Cotton Belt in the city limits. The action of the commission rather interferes with the plans of the Katy, as material has been ordered and orders have been given to install signal bells. This morning, Judge W. E. Spell, attorney for the line in Waco, will go before the commission and outline his plans of the company. He will submit the proposition of the alarm bells to be installed at once and will further state to the commission that within six months the road will begin the installation of a gate system here. These gates are long arms which come down from each side the street on each side the track, and meet in the center of the street. They are operated from a tower by a signal man who has warning of the approach of any train from either direction, and he closes each crossing as the train nears it.

Commissioner Wright has long favored the gate system. He brought it up some time ago, but was persuaded to let the matter rest for a time, but he has never been satisfied with the system of watchmen.
